Media Icons is a World Renowned Fashion Imagery Photohouse that provides editorial images for publishing. They required a cutting edge style which accented thier imagery, after carefull review and discussion they decided that Template # 10656 would suite their web presence needs perfectly. After the purchase of the website template the "overhaulin" began by gathering the desired images and content needed to present their corporate communications.

- The initial template purchased by Medialcons.net
- The same template "overhauled" to meet the customers specific needs.

Things to notice are:

- Navigation changes
- Images were customized
- Color Scheme altered
- Links were added
- and more...
